Tempo di Redowa.

Scherzando.

1812 • 6

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1874 by White Smith and Co. in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

Brillante.

The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The word "scherz." is written in the left margin. The right hand plays a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. There are five measures in this system.

The second system continues the piece with the same notation and accompaniment. It contains five measures.

The third system continues the piece with the same notation and accompaniment. It contains five measures.

The fourth system begins with a key signature change to two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The right hand melody becomes more complex, featuring sixteenth-note runs. The left hand accompaniment remains steady. There are five measures in this system.

The fifth system continues in the new key signature of two flats. The right hand melody continues with intricate sixteenth-note patterns. The left hand accompaniment remains steady. There are five measures in this system.
